JUBILEE PARK

WRENTHAM › SUFFOLK

Situated in one of the most attractive parts of the Suffolk countryside, Jubilee Park is an exclusive new development of 2, 3 & 4 bedroom houses and 3 bedroom bungalows.

Located just a few miles from the stunning Suffolk Heritage Coastline and within easy reach of the fine city of Norwich.

A wonderful place to call home

Welcome to Jubilee Park, an exclusive new collection of substantial homes from Cripps Developments.

The pretty village of Wrentham is steeped in history stretching back to Saxon times and is mentioned in the Domesday book and has won the 'Best Kept Village' competition several times in the past.

A good range of facilities can be found in the village including a local store and post office, a couple of local pubs that both serve food, a café and a Chinese takeaway. A choice of pre-schools and primary schools can be found in Southwold. There is a wide range of state and independent schools and colleges in surrounding villages and the City of Norwich provides superb University options.

Wrentham is well served by healthcare with a village GP Surgery and Dental surgeries can be found in Southwold just 4.6 miles away with a wider range of facilities located in Beccles just over 8 miles away.

The Suffolk countryside opens up endless possibilities a leisurely lunch at one of the many excellent rural pubs or exploring the footpaths and byways that criss-cross the countryside of Suffolk and Norfolk. You can be on the beach in just over 5 minutes at Covehithe and in less than a 10 minute drive you can be in Southwold with its picturesque town centre with a choice of restaurants and bars and lovely seafront with its famous beach huts. Beccles is about a 20 minute drive and Lowestoft the same, between them they provide shoppers with an excellent choice of high street names and interesting independent shops.

*Jubilee Park, Wrentham -

Out and about - further afield

Jubilee Park is ideally located for discovering the glorious sandy beaches of the Suffolk and Norfolk coastline, less than 5 miles from the picturesque seaside town of Southwold on the Suffolk Heritage Coast with its sandy beach, beach huts, lighthouse and famous brewery. Lowestoft is only nine miles while the Norfolk coastal town of Great Yarmouth is about 20 miles away.

The Cathedral City of Norwich with countless bars, restaurants and shops is located just over 26 miles from Jubilee Park. Norwich is home to many beautiful historic buildings and regularly features in the list of top destinations for sight seeing and shopping, with department stores, covered shopping malls, High Street names, boutique shops and a vibrant daily market.

With the A12 and A146 offering access to Norwich, Ipswich, London and the south-east, and the A14 serving the Midlands and the North the region is easily accessible by road from all parts of the UK.

If travelling by train the average journey time from London Liverpool Street to Norwich is around 2 hours with local connecting services within East Anglia.

If travelling further afield you can be at Norwich International Airport in less than an hour with direct flights to and from several European destinations along with Manchester, Bristol, Edinburgh, Aberdeen and Glasgow with connections to international destinations.
